3. POLICY OBJECTIVES

This Policy sets the standards for classifying, managing and storing the records of the Company. The purpose of this Policy is to establish framework for effective records Management and the process for subsequent archival of such records.

4. POLICY

Records Appraisal procedure

The records appraisal process shall involve making a considered and formal judgment, often after considerable research, that certain records have enough value to warrant a considerable and continuous expenditure of funds for preserving them. In general, the Company shall consider the following factors while deciding on whether or not documents are to be preserved. However, these are guiding principles and the Company shall not be rigidly bound by them. They shall serve as an aid for the respective operational/ functional departments of the Company in making decision for preservation of documents:

- Whether the records are statutory documents required by various regulatory authorities from time to time.
- Whether the information contained in the document is generally available.
- Whether the value possessed by the records is purely informational or of some intrinsic value.
- Assessment of the user’s needs for the document- whether it is of active use, Semi-active use (not of current use but referred to on occasions) or is rarely or never needed for reference.

Manner of preservation of documents

a. Methodology of preservation

The Company shall primarily utilize any one/combination of the following methods in preserving the records:

1. Department or function-wise

2. Subject ortopic-wise
3. Chronologically
4. Such other method as the Departmental heads may consider appropriate, so as to fulfill the following objectives:
 - (i) To meet the legal standards for protection, storage and retrieval.
 - (ii) To optimize the use of space and minimize the cost of record retention.

b. Storage and Security Conditions

The records should be stored in conditions that are secure and clean with low risk of damage. Records of non-paper format shall require special storage conditions and handling process, after taking into account their specific character. Similarly, records of continuing value and requiring longer preservation shall require a higher quality of storage.

Duration of preservation

The Minimum Retention Requirement of the different categories of the Company records is provided in the Retention Schedule which is disclosed by way of Annexure to this Policy. The Retention Schedule has classified the records into the following categories:

- a. Documents whose preservation shall be permanent in nature.
